APPLICATION RULES

2018 PROGRAMME

CHAMPION TEACHERS 2018

1. THE PROGRAMME

Peru Champion Teachers is a British Council programme that strengthens professional development in the field of English Language Teaching (ELT). It aims at training teachers to become reflective practitioners and informed decision makers in the classroom. We do this by offering opportunities for Exploratory Action Research (EAR).

2. THE CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Teachers who wish to participate in the Champion Teachers Programme need to express their interest (or apply for the programme). To facilitate the applications, the British Council operates an organized process that invites teachers to submit their expressions of interest. All expressions of interest are evaluated and selected teachers are invited to participate in the programme.

3. TERRITORY AND ELIGIBILITY

The call for applications is open to individuals who comply with the following 5 minimum requirements:

- a) Be an EFL¹ Teacher who carries out their professional activity in Peru and that has had limited opportunities for international professional development;
- b) Have a professional qualification (either from a pedagogical institute or a university)
- c) Have at least three years of experience working in a the EFL sector;
- d) Have a minimum certified level of English of CEFR B1 (Intermediate). An online diagnostic test will be required upon acceptance of application;
- e) Be a highly motivated individual wishing to deepen knowledge and experience regarding classroom research.

Although the application process is free of charge, applicants are responsible for any expenses they incur in when planning, preparing or delivering activities in connection with this submission. Expenses may include, but are not limited to, materials, stationery, any type of procured service or good, Internet service, etc.

Only one application per teacher is allowed. Submissions must evidence original work and/or appropriate references and credits. Applications with evidence of plagiarism will be discarded.

The application is accompanied by a 400 word essay. Applicants need to choose only ONE of the options below for their essay:

OPTION A:

Describe a success story in your teaching life. This may be something that worked and you would like to explore further. Explain what was particularly successful and why you think this happened.

OPTION B:

Focus on a situation that puzzles you: Describe a doubt or question you have about your students and their learning. Explain the situation that causes your doubts and why it is important for you and your learners to clarify the case.

OPTION C:

A challenging situation: Think of something that did not work in your classroom at some point and that you would like to investigate. Describe the situation and explain why this challenge is relevant for you and your learners.

OPTION D:

Your personal and professional tools to address your classroom challenges: Explain what you usually do when you face challenging or puzzling situations in your teaching. Provide examples of how you have used this professional tool.

Av. José Pardo 434, Oficina 1703
Miraflores, Lima

5. APPLICATION DATES

Applications for the 2018 programme will be accepted from 15 March to 15 April, 2018. Any application received before the opening date or after the closing date will not be included in the process. The British Council accepts no responsibility whatsoever for any technical failure or malfunction or any other problem with any system, server, provider or otherwise that may result in any entry being lost, delayed or not properly registered.

Selected applicants will be notified on 27 April, 2018. This notification will be made to the e-mail address provided by the selected applicant when submitting their application in accordance with section 3 of these Rules. In this notification, the British Council will inform each selected applicant of the steps required to enable the British Council to confirm acceptance:

- a) Diagnostic on-line English test and proof of attaining a minimum CEFR level B1 (Intermediate)
- b) Signature of the commitment to engage in EAR programme from June to October 2018.

The British Council reserves the right to grant acceptance to another applicant if confirmation is not received within 1 week after such notification.

6. HOW TO APPLY

The application process and format will be promoted by British Council in Peru. To complete an application, participants must follow these steps:

- a) Accept the Champion Teachers Submission Rules in the “Peru Champion Teachers 2018 (EAR) Application Form”
- b) Complete the “Peru Champion Teachers 2018 (EAR) Application Form” in full, including their 400 word essay
- c) Submit the application

7. SELECTION OF PARTICIPANTS FOR PROGRAMME PHASE 1

The selection of participants in the programme will take place within 15 days following the closing date referred to in section 3 above. All applications will be reviewed and judged by a panel of ELT specialists appointed by the British Council. The judges' decision is final and binding.

Applicants' essays will be assessed based on the following three criteria:

- a) Communication: Ideas and information need to be well articulated. Applicants must show evidence of good command of the language, with no spelling, grammar or punctuation errors that obstruct meaning.
- b) Fulfillment. The topic of the option selected by the applicant is addressed in full and the applicant displays progression (i.e. it does not repeat one idea once and again) and cohesion.
- c) Self-reflection. The essay demonstrates evidence that the applicant can use self-reflective skills.

Programme Phase 1

This phase consists of an initial training workshop that provides successful applicants with the basic toolkit to implement exploratory action research in the classroom.

For the 2018 Champion Teachers Programme, there will be one training event in Arequipa in the last weekend of May 2018, for the participants of the south of Peru.

There will be a second training event in Lima on the first weekend of June, 2018, for the participants of the north, the jungle and central highlands of Peru.

Sponsorship for selected Phase 1 applicants includes training, materials, lunch and coffee breaks for the duration of the event.

Additional sponsorship will be provided for participants not living in Lima or Arequipa. This sponsorship will include return transportation – either by plane or by bus—to Lima or Arequipa (depending on the place of residence of the teacher) and accommodation in Lima or Arequipa.

British Council reserves the right to select the regions where sponsorships will apply.

Awards are personal to the successful applicants and cannot be transferred to any third party. Awards cannot be exchanged for money or any other goods or services.

All selected attendees of Phase 1, whether sponsored or not, are expected to complete training which will require the following mandatory end products:

- a) A proposed design for a potential EAR project design, execution and final report
- b) A proposed design for an EAR poster presentation

Award-recipients, their work and the event will be disseminated in the British Council social networks. British Council reserves the right to invite applicants to join solely the opening training sessions of the last weekend of May, 2018 in Arequipa or the first weekend of June, 2018 in Lima.

Programme Phase 2

On completion of Programme Phase 1, the British Council will select a maximum of 30 EAR Proposed Designs to be implemented throughout 2018. The selected designs will be implemented by teachers in their home schools and will be monitored and supported by British Council from June to September 2018.

Programme Phase 2 participants will be accompanied in their project implementation by external mentors and will be required to maintain permanent communication with them, record their findings and submit their reports according to the British Council mentoring calendar.

Programme Phase 3

On completion of Programme Phase 2, selected programme participants will be required to attend the Champion Teachers Closing Event to present their results and attend a workshop at the end of the EAR cycle. Sponsorship for selected participants to participate in this event will be covered by the British Council on a case-by-case basis.

Programme Phase 3 results will be collected in a publication which will be disseminated by the British Council and which will contribute to the body of ELT research and development globally.

8. DISCLAIMER

The British Council bears no responsibility for failure to notify winning participants or failure to deliver awards where such failure results from the provision of inaccurate contact details by the applicants or from the acts or omissions of any third party (including, without limitation, any internet or postal service provider) and shall have no liability to any entrant if it is prevented from or delayed in delivering any aspect of the application or the awards by acts, events, omissions or accidents beyond its reasonable control.
